OFFICE ORDER

Subject: Dr. R. T. Ugale, HoD & Assistant Professor of Electrical Engineering Department as Coordinator of Tribal Development Cell.

We are pleased to announce the nomination of Dr. R. T. Ugale as the Coordinator of the Tribal Development Cell with immediate effect until further notice.

The scope of a Coordinator for a Tribal Development Cell typically includes various responsibilities aimed at the upliftment and empowerment of tribal communities and students in campus and outside campus through education, social programs, and development initiatives related to tribal society.

- Academic Support for Tribal Students
- Capacity Building and Skill Development
- Research and Documentation
- Community Outreach and Engagement
- Cultural Integration and Preservation
- Liaison with Government and NGOs
- Advocacy and Policy Development
- Monitoring and Reporting

We believe that Dr. Ugale's expertise and commitment will significantly contribute to the advancement and empowerment of tribal communities.

We are confident that under Dr. Ugale's guidance, the Tribal Development Cell will play a pivotal role in driving impactful programs that align with Government of India and Government of Maharashtra policies, fostering sustainable growth and upliftment for tribal communities.
