Circular No. 11/ 2025

Amendments in the rules of CGPA improvement of UG/PG students

As per section 22 of UG Rules and Regulations and section 20 of PG Rules and Regulations, the existing rules of CGPA improvement allow UG/PG students registering for courses within one year from the date of passing the UG/PG Program and complying a few other conditions.

As per the resolution AC-5.5 of the 5th Academic Council Meeting of COEP Technological University held on 30th November 2024, the amendments in rules and regulations for the CGPA improvement of UG/PG students are as follows:

- i) Students with CGPA < 6.75 shall be allowed for CGPA improvement from his/her Sixth Semester of UG program and Third Semester of PG program
- ii) Students shall choose a minimum of one theory course and a maximum of three theory courses with 'DD' or 'CD' grades preferably for CGPA improvement.
- iii) These three courses shall be registered all at once, or individually, or in pair from the sixth semester onward for UG program and third semester onward for PG program as per the availability in the ongoing semester.
- iv) Students shall avail the improvement attempt for registered courses only once.
- v) The best grade either in recent or previous attempts shall be awarded to these students.
- vi) Students shall register for CGPA improvement at the beginning of semester.
